Pastoral Letter

Greetings in Jesus' Name who works odd things!

The Lord kept us safe during the last month; He showered His innumerable blessings upon our lives. For example, we enjoyed the good weather and rain. WSCS team went for Mission trip to KGF and came back safe. For all these we need to thank Him.

As we have entered into the month of October, We are going to celebrate the Harvest Festival for the English Congregation. We need to pray that everyone participates enthusiastically in it.

In the month of July we meditated upon Holistic Worship, then in August 'They were different for the Divine' and in last month 'Tests against the Teacher'. We learnt that Jesus overcame all the tests since he had a deep knowledge in the word of God.

This month we are going to meditate upon the theme. "THE POWER OF PRAYER". 'Prayer is the vital breath of every Christian'. Prayer brings a lot of blessings in everyone's life. One of the aspects is that it brings power to Jesus' disciples. We are going to meditate mostly from the events in the life of Jesus. I hope this will strengthen our prayer life. We are encouraged to pray at 8 p.m. every day for the Church needs.

Jesus' personal prayers have been recorded in many places in the four Gospels. Being the God's son, in other words, God Himself, spent much time in prayer. For example, sometimes early in the morning, sometimes evening and sometimes in the night. Whenever he felt the need of charging Himself with the power of God he went to the lonely place and charged Himself. If Jesus needed a life of prayer how much more we need it, as weak human beings. This month let us spend more time in prayer to be charged to live a holy life and do God's work.

May the Lord bless you!

Yours in His Church Ministry,

Rev.P.Koilraj

அதிகாரங்களை செய்கிற இயேசுவின் நாமத்தில் வாழ்த்துக்கள்!

தேவன் போன மாதத்தில் சுகத்தோடு நம்மை பாதுகாத்தார். அவருடைய எண்ணி முடியாத ஆசீர்வாதங்களை நம்மீது தூவினார். உதாரணமாக நாம் நல்ல கால சூழ்நிலையை அனுபவிக்கவும், நல்ல மழையை பெற்றுக்கொள்ளவும் உதவி செய்தார். பெண்கள் ஐக்கிய சங்கத்திலிருந்து கோலார் தங்க வயல் பகுதிக்கு அருட்பணி பயணம் சென்று சுகத்தோடு திரும்பினார்கள். இவைகளுக்காக நாம் தேவனுக்கு நன்றி செலுத்த வேண்டும்.

அக்டோபர் மாதத்தில் பிரவேசித்திருக்கிற நாம் ஆங்கில திருச்சபையின் அறுவடைப்பண்டிகையை அனுசரிக்க இருக்கிறோம். எல்லாரும் உற்சாகத்தோடு இதில் பங்கு பெற நாம் ஜெபிக்க வேண்டும். ஜூலை மாதத்தில் 'முழுமையான வழிபாடு/ஆராதனை' என்ற கருத்திலும், ஆகஸ்டு மாதத்தில் 'வல்லவருக்காக வித்தியாசமானவர்கள்' என்ற கருத்திலும், செப்டம்பர் மாதத்தில் 'போதகருக்கு எதிரான பரீட்சைகள்' என்ற கருத்திலும் தியானம் செய்தோம்.

இந்த மாதத்தில் 'ஜெபத்தின் வல்லமை' என்ற கருத்தில் தியானம் செய்ய போகிறோம். "ஜெபம் ஒவ்வொரு கிறிஸ்தவனுடைய முக்கியமான மூச்சாகும்". ஜெபம் ஒவ்வொருவருடைய வாழ்விலும் ஆசீர்வாதத்தை கொண்டு வருகிறதாக இருக்கிறது. இவ்விதமான பல ஆசீர்வாதங்களில் தேவனுடைய சீஷர்கள் பெற்றுக் கொள்வது "வல்லமை" இயேசுவின் வாழ்க்கையிலிருந்து இந்த கருத்தின் அடிப்படையில் தியானம் செய்ய போகிறோம். இந்த தியானம் நம் ஜெப வாழ்க்கையை வலுப்படுத்தும். உதாரணமாக நாம் இரவு 8 மணிக்கு தினமும் நம் திருச்சபையின் தேவைகளுக்காக ஜெபிக்க அழைக்கப்படுகிற அழைப்பை பெலப்படுத்தும்.

இயேசுவின் ஜெபவாழ்க்கை நான்கு சவிசேஷ புத்தகங்களிலும் பல இடங்களில் குறிப்பிடப்பட்டுள்ளது. இயேசு தேவனுடைய குமாரனாக அல்லது தேவனாக இருந்தாலும் அதிக நேரம் ஜெபத்தில் செலவிட்டார். உதாரணமாக அதிகாலையில், அல்லது மாலையில் அல்லது இரவில் எப் பொழுதெல் லாம் தான் தேவனிடத் திலிருந்து சக்தியை பெற்றுக்கொள்ள வேண்டும் என்று நினைத்தாரோ அப்பொழுதெல்லாம் தனிமையான ஓரிடத்திற்கு சென்று நேரம் செலவிட்டார். இயேசுவுக்கே இவ் விதமான நேரம் தேவைப்பட்டதென்றால் பெலவீனமான மனிதர்களாகிய நமக்கு எத்தனை அதிகம் தேவை. பரிசுத்த வாழ்க்கை வாழவும், தேவனுடைய வேலையை செய்யவும் இந்த மாதத்தில் அதிகமான நேரத்தை ஜெபத்தில் செலவிடுவோம்.

தேவன் உங்கள் ஒவ்வொருவரையும் ஆசீர்வதிப்பாராக!

திருச்சபையின் பணியில்

அருள்திரு கோயில்ராஜ்.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

- Mrs. Sharon Whittakar

Sharing the Gospel can be scary and sometimes completely overwhelming. As we try to tell others about salvation. We find our palms sweating and our minds grasping for the right words to say, But we don't need to look for any further than Jesus for an example. The best way to share Jesus' message to others is to look at how he did it! It is not about making a sales pitch or arguing with the other person about their faith; it is about caring for them, speaking the truth and inviting them to something great – a relationship with God.

1.Be bold – When Jesus shared the Gospel, he didn't give them a tract and walk away. He boldly called people to repent and get salvation. He wasn't afraid to share what God had done for him and what was to come for those who believed. We don't have to be afraid either. When we accept Jesus as our Saviour and when God gives us the Holy Spirit, ' it does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline (2 Timothy 1:7)

2.Be graceful – We are totally incapable of saving ourselves from sin. Jesus gave us something that we didn't deserve and couldn't earn: He gave us Grace. Jesus always spoke the truth of the Gospel with Grace (Ephesians 2: 1-10). When we focus on other's sins, we are telling them that they have to fix it themselves or 'get right' instead of inviting them into a relationship with the loving Saviour. We don't share the gospel with others to kick them out for their wrongdoing or judge them for their thoughts. We share the gospel with others to point them to Jesus.

3.Be real – Jesus was Himself all the time (24 x 7). Whether it was a culturally condemned Samaritan woman (John 4: 1-26) or in the presence of His best friends, His disciples – Jesus didn't fake it or pretend to be someone He wasn't. He was sincere to himself.

As we reach out to others and share the Gospel, we need to be real. God has blessed us with the ability to relate to others in a way no one else can. Jesus was the perfect example for sharing the Gospel with others. We should never forget how important it is to help others come to Christ. Elder M Russell Ballaid said, "Fear will be replaced with Faith and confidence, when we kneel in prayer and ask the Lord to bless us with opportunities to share the good news" We must demonstrate our faith and watch out for opportunities to introduce the Gospel of Christ to others. In the present age, technology is a significant blessing – it can provoke us to share gospel more. We can encourage our youngsters to use social media for outreach. It can be as simple as posting a scripture passage, or a spiritual article or even a basic question of faith.

Let us stay positive with those we speak to help them feel our love and care for them. "Happy Sharing"

Women's Fellowship - Mission Trip

- Mrs. Merjula Jabez

I thank and praise God for He enabled us to go for this mission trip. We were a team of 13-14 women along with 2 boys who headed to KGF on 24th Sep 2017. After the Tamil service at BMC, we left Bangalore at around 10:00AM. We reached the place, Ramana Maharishi Trust, a Hindu organization, at around 11:30 AM. We have been praying and planning for the entire trip. We were welcomed with warm & friendly smiles both from the volunteers as well as the inmates of the Trust. The Trust is taking care of people affected with Leprosy and few elderly people who have been deserted by their family.

Even though it was a Hindu Mission Organization, they gladly allowed us to sing a few songs and share the gospel. The gospel was shared to the people and final call to salvation was given in prayer. Many people opened up their hearts to Christ. Praise God! All glory to Him.

After the prayer, people were given time to share their personal prayer requests. Many of them came forward to share with us about their burdens, requesting us to pray for them. To our surprise, even the lady in charge of the organization asked us to pray for her and her family. Then we realized and thanked God that He had already prepared this place and people for Him. We came to know that a Christian aunty has recently joined the Trust as a cook and she had been sincerely praying for God to send His people to share God's word and to pray for them. Praise God for everything!

We were also able to sponsor few beds for the inmates. God is good. We then had lunch at the home and then met few people in their rooms and prayed for them. We know for sure we were not able to meet all of their needs, however we were able to spend some time with them talking and listening, bringing smiles to their faces, most importantly we were able to tell about the love of Christ.

Some of them are doing paper bags and they keep sending it to different parts of Bangalore for their income, which they use for buying fruits or for other medical expenses. We were so happy to meet few children who lived with their mothers affected with leprosy, who are so responsible and are taking good care of their mothers.

Our Pastor Amma joined us which was a great encouragement to us. I thank our church WSCS Team, and the others for organizing this Mission trip.

Each of us returned home, thanking God for reviving our hearts to be consciously praying with burden and giving to those around us. Let us as a church continue to pray that each soul grows in the Lord and trusts Jesus for their needs and healing. Thank you Lord.

City Life – Some Learnings from Non-believers - Mr Dilip

Some of our ancestors lived in villages which came to the LORD in large numbers. After the first generation struggle, they would have had wonderful fellowship between believers. We, for most part, have chosen to live in cities, where we come across people of many and no faith as well. We therefore may be influenced in more ways than them. The LORD though wants to use this scattering (for us without persecution till now), to preach His word (Acts 8:4; 11:19).

There are three broad orders in the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:3-17) - first God, then parents, then neighbours. Christian life could probably be also divided into three phases in the Bible – first, a physical separation and out of bondage (Exodus 20:1,2) from Egypt, second a better separation from Babylon (post which idol worship and polygamy almost fully stopped) and third a full separation of not being a Pharisee but a child of the living LORD. Similarly, there are at least three ways to lead life here on earth – being sinners, unthankful, evil (Luke 6:32-36); be of the faith but dead in works (James 2:17) or be His disciples, bearing much fruit (John 15:8) by keeping His commandments (John 15:10).

I personally have learnt a lot from non-believers, few examples being, a teacher who taught me to have the courage to own up after doing something wrong; a Brahmin to whom when I had gone for help, asked if I was a Christian and told me to pray the LORD's prayer to receive an answer; a manager at work who taught me to be fair, transparent, impartial; a colleague who worked really well but when one mistake appeared did not try to cover it by quoting all the things he did well. The Bible records qualities of many non-believers and those who knew only a little of the LORD. It is important to evaluate ourselves against these to see where we are, as our righteousness first may have to exceed them, then exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees (Matthew 5:20) to enter the kingdom of heaven.

While non-believers (and believers too) can display repentance, acknowledge our LORD, show love when

- threatened with life (Genesis 20)
- threatened with destruction of a city, kingdom (Jonah 3)
- shown spectacular things and fear grips them (Matthew 27:54)
- bad dreams come (Matthew 27:19)
- others show them love (Luke 6:32)
- others do them good (Luke 6:33)
- they hope to receive (Luke 6:34)

Some others genuinely seem to have displayed the fruits of the Spirit in varying degrees.

- Love: Fellow travelers with Jonah (Jonah 1:12,13)

True, they did throw Jonah into the sea eventually, but only after knowing that their fight against the LORD is in vain. Is our effort to save the lives of people who we know very little about greater than these travelers? Do we take enough risks to save the life of one person?

- Joy: Hiram, who showed he was happy David had a wise son (1Kings 5:1-7)

In days when many kings wanted to show supremacy like capturing territory, making slaves of captives, hoping the other kingdom becomes weak, we see a king who was happy there was Solomon, a wise ruler over another country. Is our happiness at others success greater than this king? Do we praise the LORD for such blessing on others?

- Peace: Rahab, who chose not to hand over the spies to the soldiers (Joshua 2)

Here is a woman who cares for her father, mother, brothers, sisters, their possessions, though they have left her to fend for herself in such a profession. Are we happy with the rule in Romans 13:1 alone but find it difficult to do what Rahab did? How much more should we care for our loved ones than Rahab. Do we fight in vain, instead of pursuing peace?

- Longsuffering: Ruth (Ruth 1:16,17; 2:10,13,23)

Ruth may have known a little of the LORD of Israel through her husband's family. Yet, what she gave up, how happy she was just at safety and some food makes us realize how much we not only take things for granted but even complain that it is not enough.

- Gentleness: Artaxerxes the king asking Nehemiah what he could do (Nehemiah 2:2,6)

True, Nehemiah's prayer, made the way. But, how many times do we genuinely enquire of someone who looks sad, especially those who are financially or socially considered lower than us? How many times are we willing to let go as Artaxerxes did?

- Goodness: Belshazzar who rewarded Daniel even after an honest but hurting interpretation (Daniel 5:29)

Sad that Belshazzar didn't repent as the people of Nineveh did, but it is amazing how a pagan king rewards Daniel who speaks the truth which is very painful. Do we allow our pastor, fellow believer, loved one to correct us, or only allow them to speak in general or against others? Do we thank those who have corrected us like Belshazzar?

- Faith: Centurion who had great faith (Luke 7:9)

Here is a man who was working in the army of a government keen to capture nations and rule over them. Do we believe in Christ more than the Centurion or do we ask for signs, wonders, miracles? Do we love our LORD's children and our LORD's work (Luke 7:5) more than this man did?

- Meekness: Servants with Naaman (2 Kings 5:13)

In a world where we think how we can get to the next position, when will my boss retire or move elsewhere, here are servants who want their master to be healed and lead them well. Do we care for those in higher positions than ours more than these servants? Do we humbly talk to everyone?

- Temperance/Self-Control: Widow who fed Elijah (1 Kings 17:11-15)

We may feel what it is to have one meal less and die. However, the self-control the widow showed in not just giving away the flour, wine, wood but also in cooking the meal for Elijah, is maybe one reason what got her a mention from Jesus (Luke 4:25,26). True, she had the promise that if she feeds Elijah, she will not have any lack during the time of the famine. Still, have we trained our children like this wonderful woman in sharing and self-control? Do we labour with our own hands in serving our family and others?

For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God... and if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? – 1 Peter 4:17,18

TEENS SUNDAY REPORT

- Ms. Jessica Selvin

Teens Sunday was held at BMC on September 17th for the Tamil and English service.

A lot of effort went in to make it a success. The suggestion for the theme of 'priorities' was from the teens as they felt it was crucial and important for all members of the congregation. We practiced two days prior and had a lot of fun as well! The practice also brought us together as a fellowship.

The Tamil service started at 7:30am and Thenmozi led us in worship. Bible reading was done by roja. There was a short choreography done by the girls. We then performed a skit on priorities wherein we narrated the goals of worldly people and also the struggles of a growing Christian in keeping his priorities right with a touch of humour. Our mentor, Jabez Uncle, gave the message challenging parents on raising a godly generation.

Following the English service there was a forum for discussion between the parents and teens mediated by Jabez Uncle (but only after we took enough selfies to our heart's content!!) Various issues like social media, studies, involvement in ministry and relationships were discussed. The points shared were beneficial for both the parents as well as teens. The discussion was concluded by our pastor advising us, teens to spend time in prayer and meditation of the Word. This was then followed by lunch. We, as teens, want to thank uncle and aunty with all our hearts for the efforts they put in for teens Sunday as well as mentoring us. As per our teens fellowship tradition, we celebrated with a black forest cake the following Sunday!!

Prayer Diary - A point a day

Compiled by Mr. Dilip

1. Church - John Piper in Desiring God writes, "Since Christ is no longer on earth, he wants His body, the Church, to reveal His suffering in its suffering". Since we are His body, our sufferings are His sufferings". Let us pray that the LORD will continue to fulfil His purpose for our Church.
2. Gandhi Jayanthi - Praise our LORD for leaders like Gandhi. Let us pray that our LORD will raise many Josephs, Daniels, Esthers, with an excellent spirit (Daniel 6:3) for the nation to see and turn to the Creator.
3. Doing His will - Susannah Wesley, mother of John and Charles Wesley said, "Religion is nothing else than doing the will of God and not our own. Heaven or hell depends on this alone". Let our prayer be that our LORD help each one of us obey Him fully.
4. Accepting His will - Brother Shimanov, confined to a Russian psychiatric asylum for his faith said, "I accept everything God sends, as a child accepts everything from the hand of his father. Cowardice is unreasonable". Let us pray that we accept the LORD's will in our lives completely.
5. Those who persecute Christians - A Christian woman while serving time in the Siberrian labour camp, Vorkuta once wrote, "Dear LORD, have pity also on those who persecute and torture us day and night. Grant them, too, the divine grace of knowing the sweetness and happiness of Your love". As Christ taught us let us pray for those who despitefully use and persecute the LORD's children (Matthew 5:44).
6. Taking up our Cross and following Christ - A Chinese Christian once wrote, "Where there is no cross, there is no crown. This lesson cannot be learned from books...in a comfortable environment. If the spices are not refined to become oil, the fragrance of the perfume cannot flow forth...". Let us pray that we will take up our cross and follow Him (Matthew 16:24).
7. Being a witness - Elizabeth Elliot quoting Jim Elliot, missionary to Ecuador, who was martyred while trying to bring the Gospel to the Auca Indian tribe, wrote, "The word 'missionary' is not in the Bible - the word 'witness' is". Let us pray that we be a true witness of Christ in the place the LORD places us (Acts 22:15).
8. Making use of every opportunity - Tom White, who suffered in a Cuban communist prison for dropping Gospel tracts from a small airplane over the island said, "Opportunity to be a servant of the LORD exists at all times and in all places. Opposition should make no difference. Spiritually we have only one Leader. He orders our steps". Let us pray that we will not waste a single opportunity to serve the LORD (Ephesians 5:16).

9. Bearing one another's burdens - Chinese Christian Watchman Nee, imprisoned for his faith in China writes, "You can only help others in proportion to what you yourself have suffered....as you let the Holy Spirit work the dying of Jesus in you - life will flow out to others, even the life of Christ". Let us pray that we will be able to bear one another's burdens and so fulfil the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2).
10. Those in jail - Pastor Richard Wurmbbrand writes, "Jail is no hindrance to a useful Christian life". Just like constant prayer was offered to God by the Church when Peter was in prison (Acts 12:5), let us pray for all who are jailed without cause and for those jailed with cause for a full repentance.
11. Families of Martyrs - Mark Galli writes, "I've come to believe that God, in His wisdom, allows martyrdom in every generation in part because, without them, the reality of Christ's death for us becomes increasingly blurry...". Let us like Jesus take time (Matthew 14:13) remember and help the families of martyrs across the world.
12. Government and the place we live in - A Sudanese Christian witnesses, "We pray for the government of Sudan but thank God for it, too. Thanks to its policies and its war against Christians - the terror, the threats, the imprisonment - look at how the Church has grown...". Let us pray for the welfare of the place we are in to the LORD on its behalf, for in its peace, shall we have peace (Jeremiah 29:7).
13. To never deny Christ - Saleema, when she was a nineteen-year old in Pakistan and severely persecuted for her Christian faith said, "I would rather be hung than betray my LORD". May the LORD help us never deny Him at any time, in any degree (Matthew 10:33).
14. Sharing the Gospel - Ray Thorne, missionary to the persecuted Church says, "If we Christians don't continue to share the gospel and push the envelope, the envelope will close in on us. If we maintain a 'silent witness', there will be no witness, and Christianity will die...". Let us pray that all Christians in the world will declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples (Psalm 96:3).
15. Being with Jesus every day - An Iranian pastor, who lost his home and his job because of His faith, says, after escaping to the West, "Sometimes I miss those days of persecution because I was so alive. I felt every day that Jesus was with me". Let us like Christ glorify our LORD in this earth (John 17:4) and every day praise Him (Psalm 145:2).
16. Removing all bitterness and resentment - A former prisoner of faith under communism says, "I hate the communist system, but...I love the Communists with all my heart...I have not the slightest bitterness or resentment against the Communists or my torturers...". If this prisoner who was tortured can say this, let us pray that we who face only a small fraction of this, remove all bitterness and resentment against others from our hearts and in turn love them as Jesus commanded (Luke 6:28).

17. Remembering the persecuted brethren - A Lutheran Pastor, who endured horrific torture to protect members of the underground Church said, "A Church that does not remember its persecuted brethren is no Church at all". Let us pray that the LORD will help us remember those in bonds, as bonds with them; and them which suffer adversity, as if we were suffering with them (Hebrews 13:3).
18. Strengthening and encouraging others - On learning that her mother, father, three younger sisters and nine-year-old brother had all been brutally murdered in a concentration camp, Sabina Wurmbbrand said, "I will not show a sad face. I owe to God a joyous believer; to the Church, an example of courage; and to my husband, a serene wife". Let us pray that we like Sabina and Timothy, strengthen and encourage others in faith (1 Thessalonians 3:2).
19. Festivals - As many in our nation celebrate Diwali, let us pray that our nation will see Jesus, the light of the world, follow Him and have the light of life (John 8:12).
20. Obedience - A Vietnamese Christian Pastor, imprisoned for his faith writes, "We have learned that suffering is not the worst thing in world - disobedience to God is the worst. Let us pray that as individuals, families, Area Fellowships, Prayer Groups, as a Church, we will love Christ by obeying His commandments (John 14:15).
21. Useful to our Redeemer - Pastor Zapata of Peru told his congregation, "Why do you buy a shirt? To use it. Why did Jesus redeem you and buy you with His own blood? To use you for His kingdom". Let us pray that we purge ourselves of anything dishonourable, set apart, useful for our Master, prepared unto every good work (2 Timothy 2:21).
22. Love - A former underground Church Pastor who was imprisoned for his faith wrote, "God will not judge us according to how much we endured, but how much we could love". Let us pray that we love the LORD our God and our neighbours as He wants us to (Matthew 22:37-40).
23. Boldness - Boldened by the words of his wife Sabina that she did not want a coward for a husband, Richard Wurmbbrand in the Romanian national congress spoke, "Our first loyalty should be to God and not to Communist leaders". He would later spend fourteen years in prison. Let us as the believers of the early Church pray for boldness to speak His Word (Acts 4:29).
24. Each soul is precious - St. Augustine said, "If all mankind had been righteous and only one man a sinner, Christ would have come to endure the same cross for this one man. He so loves every individual". Let us pray that in all our Outreaches, Sunday School, Teens, Youth, Women's, Men's, Seniors Fellowship, every individual will be cared for.

25. Relationships - Pray that all our relationships will be governed by Christ's supreme example of love "By this shall all men know that you are my disciples, if you have love one to another." John 13: 34,35
26. Pastor and his family, all the families of our church - Praise God for Pastor and his family and each family and each individual, that everyone would know that 'the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding' (Prov 9:10)
27. Outreaches of our church - Let us praise the LORD for the ministry continuing in Whitefield, Irula, Priyanka Nagar, Varthur, Sadarmangala and outreach Sunday Schools at KR Puram, Hoodi and Devasandra. Let us pray that the numbers increase and Churches be established in faith (Acts 16:5).
28. Diligent teaching of God's Word - Praise God for each Christian who has taken some responsibility to teach God's Word, pray that they would follow Ezra's example 'For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the law of the Lord and to teaching its decrees and laws...' (Ezra 7:10)
29. Giving, Sharing in the needs of others - Pray for regular and disciplined giving, that all would follow the example recorded in 2 Cor 8:4, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people.
30. For those having the spirit of fear - Pray that the LORD will grant them a spirit of power, of love and of a sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7).
31. Needs of new converts - Many new converts have been suppressed and exploited for generations. Let us praise the LORD for the salvation they received and pray that we be able to fulfil our duty to lift them out of poverty, educate them and get them to a level where they are able to provide for their needs (3 John 1:2)

காயீன் - பஞ்சாகமம்

பெயரின் பொருள் : கர்த்தரால் ஒரு மனுஷனை பெற்றேன்

குடும்பம்:

தகப்பன் பெயர் : ஆதாம்

தாயின் பெயர் : ஏவாள்

சகோதர சகோதரிகள் : ஆபேல், சேத் மற்றும் பல சகோதரர்களும் சகோதரிகளும்

மகன் பெயர் : ஏனோக்

தொழில் : விவசாயம்

வரலாறு :

* காயீன் தேவனால் முதல் குடும்பத்திற்கு கொடுக்கப்பட்ட 'பரிசுத்த பரிசு' * ஆதாமுக்கும் ஏவாளுக்கும் பிறந்த முதல் மகன்.

* காயீனின் பிறப்பு தேவனுடைய உதவியோடு பெறப்பட்ட ஒன்று என்று மேன்மைப்படுத்தப்பட்டது.

* இவர் நிலத்தில் பயிரிடுகிற ஒருவராக இருந்தார்.

வாழ்த்துவதற்கு:

* இவர் தான் முதலாவது தேவனுக்கென்று காணிக்கையை கொண்டு வந்தார்.

* இவர் முதலாவது ஒரு பட்டணத்தை கட்டி அதை தன்னுடைய மகன் ஏனோக்கின் பெயரால் அழைத்தார்.

வருந்துவதற்கு:

* இவர் நிலத்தின் நல்ல கனிகளை காணிக்கையாக கொண்டுவராததால் இவருடைய காணிக்கை நிராகரிக்கப்பட்டது.

* தேவனுடைய எச்சரிப்பை பெற்றிருந்தும், தேவனிடத்தில் உதவி கேட்காதபடி தன் வழியில் சென்றார்.

* ஆபேலுக்கு விரோதமான வெறுப்பும், தேவனுக்கு நேராக மனமாற்றம் இல்லாததும் கொலை செய்வதற்கு வழிவகுத்தது.

* தன் சகோதரனை கொலை செய்த முதல் மனிதனாக மாறினார்.

* இவருக்கும் தேவனுக்கும் உள்ள உறவு பெலவீனமாக இருந்ததால் பாவத்தை மேற்கொள்ள முடியவில்லை.

* இவர் தேவனுடைய பிரசன்னத்தை விட்டு தாரம் திரிந்த முதல் மனிதர்.

* இவரில் காணப்பட்ட சுயம், பெருமை, பொறாமை, மனித நேயமான அன்பு, பாசம் இவைகளை உடைத்தெறிய செய்தது.

மனதில் பதிப்பதற்கு:

* காணிக்கையை காட்டிலும் தேவனுக்கும் நமக்கும் உள்ள உறவு முக்கியம். நம் உறவை பொறுத்தே நம் காணிக்கை ஏற்றுக்கொள்ளப்படுகிறது.

CAIN – PENTATEUCH

Meaning of the Name : I have gotten a man from the Lord

FAMILY:

Father : Adam

Mother : Eve

Brother & Sister : Abel, Seth and other brothers and sisters

Son : Enoch

Occupation : Farmer

HISTORY:

* Cain was the first divine gift from the Lord to the first family.

* He was the first son of Adam and Eve.

* His birth is hailed as a manifestation of Yahweh's help.

* He became "a tiller of the ground"

TO REWARD :

*He was the first one to build a city and named it on his son's name Enoch.

* He was the first one to bring the offering to the Lord.

TO REGRET

* His offerings were rejected because he did not bring the best fruits of his field.

* When God warned him about the sin, he was about to commit, he did not ask God's help, but went on his own way.

* His jealousy on Abel, unrepentance toward God culminated in deliberate murder.

* He was the first one to murder his own brother Abel.

* He was too weak to overcome the sin as his relationship with God was weak.

* He became the first fugitive and wanderer, far from the immediate presence of Yahweh.

* He manifested a terrible outburst of self will, pride, and jealousy leading to a total and relentless renunciation of all human ties and affection.

THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

* Our relationship with God is more important than our offering. The acceptance of our offering is based on our relationship with God.
